

First of all, thank you for bringing this art to our campus. This art truly made me look at life from a different view. Furthermore, I liked all of their paintings due to their diversity. Not to mention, I encourage you in taking all of these paintings around the nation. Many people will see these paintings in their own eyes and situations. 24

From,